

The Creation (Genesis 1)

Words & Music: Steve Layfield

C G Am C F F/E

But God said, 'Let there be light — a-part from the dark - ness —

Dm7 G7 C G Am C

[and it was so] Let there be seas be-neath skies — a - bun - dant with

F F/E Dm7 G F

wa - ters' — [and it was so] 'Let good - ness a - bound;

G/F Em7 Am

let fruit mul - ti - ply from the ground; let the flowers

F C/E Dm7 C F Am6

— and trees — be re - plen - nished with seeds while spec - tac - u - lar lights ev - er -

2

F G9sus C Am

16

16

more in the night earth sur-round! Man-kind de-nies what's plain to see before his eyes pre-fer-ring con fu - sion! With thoughts per-verse he thinks the u - ni-

E7 G

20

20

D F

24

24

verse con-forms to his de - lu - sions; au - ton - o - my il - lu - min-ates the

C

28

28

thrust of his as - tron - o - my till il - lu - sions fill

Dm Dm/C G Am7 G

31

31

up his mind, con-firm-ing in his ar - ro - gance he is too blind to see!