

Ezekiel 33 - The Watchman

Words - Steve Layfield; music - D. Bowie

C C Gm6 A7 Dm

When the sword is un-leashed on high for the sins of a land con-demned; and ap-

Dm7 Dm6 G7 C

5 point-ing a watch-man's eye, he a clar-i-on warn-ing sends if while

Cmaj7/B Gm6 A7 Dm

9 trum-pet-ing loud a-larm, they that warn-ing re-fuse to heed; they shall

Dm/C Dm6 G7 Gm

13 sure-ly be doomed to harm for sur-press-ing their deep-est need. But the

G/B Cm D \flat A \flat

17 watch-man who dan-ger sees, yet in si-lence de-fers his pleas, shall ac-

21 C+ Fm Ab7/Gb F

count-a - ble for — their blood — by a hea-ven-ly Judge be! Chris - tian,

25 Bb Dm7 Db+ C

on the ci - ty wall, be a watch - man, warn - ing each heart of stone,

29 Cm Gm Bbm F

"You are stand - ing a - lone — be - fore the throne of the Law Man, see - ing what you don't see O man! Won't you go to Cal - var - y?

33 Bb Dm7 Db+ C

37 Cm Gm Bbm Dm Db+

Are you so numb you can't feel? - - - Don't you see those scars?

42 F G9 C Db+ Dm B7 Em F Fm C

Sure as