

Ezekiel 17 - Two Eagles and a Vine

Words & Music - Steve Layfield

Em G D Bm Em G

The word of the Lord came to me, say-ing, "O Son of ___ man, ___
A cap-tive to pin-ions and wings the seed of ___ that bough ___

7 D Bm Em G D Bm A sus

de-clare now this rid-dle of ___ woe to all Is-ra-el ___ was plant-ed in well wa-tered land far-a-way from the shade;

14 A Cmaj7 D/C Bm7

the chief of all ___ ea-gles swooped down ___ scat-ter-ing high be-hold there the sap-ling spread forth, ___ the nob-lest of

22 Em C Am7

fol- iange a- round ter-ri- fy - ing strong ce- dars up - stand-ing in 22 vines on the earth, will it thrive?" asked the Lord, when the east- er - ly

28 D7sus D D G

proud Leb - a - non, The ea - gle is 28 hur - ri - canes blow? A ce - dar most

36 B \flat F C D

36 Bab - y lon's loft - y on king dom and glo - ri - ous war - ri - or heights He shall crown, root, the o'er

43 G B \flat F Gsus G

43 seed-ling's Je hoi - a - kin's off-spring appoint - ed the throne! whose whel-ming the ground with a har - vest of suc - cu - lent frouit; in its

51 E \flat F/E \flat Dm7

51 cov - en - ant oath in his hand, se - cure in God's branch - es the birds of the air will a home for their

56 Gm7 E \flat maj7

56 keep - ing would stand, but al as in the end, for the young there pre - pare till the trees all ar - ound full of

61 Gm6 D7sus D

61 Phar - aoh's as - sist - ance he sent! As I praise for their Ma - ker re - sound!