

Psalm 119 (BETH) - How Can a Man in the Days of His Youth

Words: Steve Layfield & Music: Dylan

D Dsus D Dsus D Dsus

How can a man in the days of his youth think, talk and walk in his

4 D Dsus D Dsus D Dsus

way mind - ful of Christ and the Scrip - tures of truth

7 D/F# G6 A7 D Dsus

bou - ant with in - teg - ri - ty? yes and what can be hoped for his

10 D Dsus D Dsus A7sus G6 A7

con - science to soothe when e - vil has drawn him a - stray? the an - swer my friend is

14 D Bm G A7 D

keep - ing God's com - mands, the an - swer is keep - ing God's com - mands!

These hands, tongue & feet by Your grace set apart
That I might the darkness curtail;
Establish Your Law in the depth of my heart
That I against sin might prevail.
May all that You speak be my compass and chart
Its glorious treasures unveil.
Awake or asleep, Christ's bidding I will keep
His every commandment I'll keep.

What shall the theme of my daydreaming be?
Where every day shall I turn?
And what shall I speak as my soliloquy -
Declaring to all what I learn?
May God's holy Law be the glass through which I see
The statutes of Christ what I yearn,
Yes, I will delight in doing what is right
Rejoicing in precepts of light.