

Psalm 89: Let us publish in song

Words - Steve Layfield; music - Graham Kendrick, used by permission (Makeway Music)

C G7 C F C G

Voice

Let us pub-lish in song for our child-ren to come that the Lord, our Re-deem-er, is

E Am Em C G

4 kind; in res-pect for His throne let us sing and make known that His mer-cy can sal-vage the blind!

E C G7 C F C G

8 Let all hea-ven de-clare with true saints ev'ry-where that the Lord, Da-vid's off-spring, has

E Am Em C G

12 blessed, so through-out this dom-ain He will rise up and reign, till the na-tions have en-tered His

E Am Em C G

16 rest; so through-out this do-main He will rise up and reign, till the na-tions have en-tered His

20 Am C G7 C F C G

20 rest. — Let all coast-lands be-gin to ack - know-ledge their King, who as Da-vid, of old tend-ing

24 E Am Em C G

24 sheep, test-i - fied in sweet song that His heart did be-long to the Fa-ther whose word he would

28 E C G7 C F C G

28 keep. Like the waves of the sea man is des-tined to be o-ver-whelmed by the strength of His

32 E Am Em C G

32 might; soon the dark-ness will fade in this world He has made in the dawn of His glor - i - ous

36 E Am Em C G

36 light; when all stri-ving has ceased in the Day of His peace, then at last all that's wrong will be

40 Am Em Am Em Am

40 right. Where is the horn of Your fa-vour and power? Where is the help of Your

45 Em Am Em C G

45 hand? Did You not prom-ise in earth's dar-kest hour the de-feat of our foes if we stand?

49 E C G7 C F

49 O strength-en in might, Lord, my hands for the fight, be my

52 C G E Am

52 for-tress de-fend-er and shield; o-ver-whelm and de-feat ev'ry scoun-

55 Em C G E

55 -drel I meet, hold the sword at my side that I wield; till the riv-

58 Am Em C G Am G

58 -ers run dry at the call of Your cry and the world is healed!