I will give thanks with every breath
 To Him who dwells on high;
 My God and King will hear me sing
 Until the day I die.

Let us not trust princes or kings,
 No help can they supply
 For they like all men shall return
 Beneath the ground to lie.

Happy the ones hoping in Him,
 Who all creation made;
 The justice of His law and truth
 Will be their talk and trade.

All who are poor, hungry or blind,
 The Lord will comfort soon;
 He whom the fatherless behold
 Will overturn their gloom.

Then evermore Jesus shall reign
 And rule from shore to shore;
 The tyranny of wretched sin
 Like death shall be no more!
